

APT US&C 56TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

GREEN VALLEY RANCH RESORT

HENDERSON, NEVADA • AUGUST 7-10, 2022

Opening Keynote Matt Havens - Make Your Business Human: The Four Truths That Drive Personal, Professional, and Organizational Success

When it comes to workplace success, conventional wisdom usually focuses on what separates us: Millennials vs. Boomers. Management vs. Employees. Us vs. Them. Matt's goal is to help us focus on our similarities instead of our differences so we can all Put People First. Matt's presentation will provide the following takeaways and more:

- Understand the Four Human Truths and how they impact our behavior as humans-first, but also as employees and customers.
- How to implement a people-first approach to leadership that will drive engagement and resolve the seemingly endless "work/life balance" debate.
- How to create an environment where people can be their best version of themselves.
- How to create a place where fear and failure are not only acceptable, but celebrated as opportunities for true growth.
- How to balance short-term needs against long-term goals in a way that reduces personal stress and improves strategic decision-making.
- How we take ownership of our choices — and our reactions.

Closing Keynote Workshop Kelly Richmond Pope - Fraud and Film Screening

This year's Wednesday Workshop will focus on fraud and the people who work to stop it. We'll start with a presentation on "How Whistleblowers Shape History" by our closing keynote speaker Kelly Richmond Pope, followed by a screening of Kelly's movie "All the Queen's Horses" and finishing with a question and answer period on fraud and whistleblowing with Kelly.

Kelly is an Associate Professor at DePaul University where she teaches forensic, managerial, and financial accounting as well as ethical leadership. She remains heavily involved in fraud and white-collar crime research. Her love of film and interest in merging accounting with filmmaking led her to create the popular "All the Queen's Horses" documentary film.

In 2012, Rita Crundwell was arrested as the largest municipal fraud perpetrator in the nation's history, embezzling upwards of $50 million as the comptroller and treasurer of Dixon, Illinois. The movie illuminates this case and the negligence of auditors and bankers the public relied on to keep their tax dollars safe.
