Certified Public Finance Administrator (ACPFA) Advanced Certification Information & Application

The Advanced CPFA rewards CPFA holders for a commitment to advanced educational topics offered by the APT US&C and its state and province associations.

The Advanced CPFA is designed to encourage and reward advanced education as well as participation in the APT US&C and its state and province associations to help strengthen our entire treasury community. Applicants must:

- Have a current CPFA at the time of application for the Advanced CPFA.
- Be an active APT US&C member.
- Demonstrate 15 experience points and 45 advanced education points.

The ACPFA accreditation expires after five years.

Each applicant for Advanced CPFA certification must meet the following eligibility standards:

1. In each year since last CPFA certification, must have been a duly elected or appointed treasurer, deputy or assistant treasurer, employee in/or dealing with the office of treasurer, or other principal officer in the public entity who is charged with the performance or supervision of one or more of the following responsibilities: investments, debt, or treasury activities.
2. Maintained continuous Active Membership (see APT US&C's Bylaws for definition):
 - a. For each of the years since their last CPFA certification; and
 - b. At the time of approval.
3. Believe in and practice APT US&C's Code of Ethics (as adopted).
4. Have a current CPFA certification. Successful completion of the Advanced CPFA will result in automatic renewal of the CPFA and the expiration date of the CPFA will be extended for five years from the date of approval.
5. ACPFA applicants must demonstrate a total of 60 points: 15 experience points and 45 advanced education points. All points must be earned since the last CPFA certification with supporting documentation submitted with the application.
6. Submit a non-refundable fee of two hundred dollars ($200). The application fee will be waived for the second submission if the first attempt at certification is unsuccessful. The fee includes application processing and certification award.

The application deadline is June 1st and ACPFA designations are formally recognized at the APT US&C Annual Conference.

Note: a candidate whose application is not approved by the CPFA Certification Committee will be notified of the Committee's decision and the steps needed to receive the credential. Should the candidate disagree with the Committee's ruling and recommendation on how to earn the necessary points for certification, the candidate may appeal the Committee's decision. The appeal must be sent in writing to APT US&C's headquarters within thirty (30) days of notification of the Committee's decision. The Committee Chair, within thirty (30) days, shall reconsider the circumstances and reverse the decision or submit the appeal to the Board of Directors for final determination.
